

The Power of Three – A Wallet Card Explained

Three is a magic number. Because thinking about setting up a Personal Safety Net can make people a little anxious sometimes, we thought we'd bring this magic to you. Use the Power of Threes to begin setting up YOUR PERSONAL SAFETY NET!

Here is your own WALLET CARD!!!

Leaders - Ask each person to have in hand their own wallet card. [1]

A. Who are the three people you feel closest to and could rely on if you were in need? Are they listed in your phone as I.C.E. (In Case of Emergency) contacts?

1. First
2. Second
3. Third

B. Do they know that you rely upon them? Have you talked with them individually about this? Have they agreed to be on your team?

C. Do they know that there are three of them? Do they know how to reach one another? Have they met? They support one another.

D. Do they have, or know how to get all the information they would need to be helpful? Is it organized?

E. Do they have the legal authority to do what you'd like them to do?

F. Is there anything else you'd like to put on this card? Allergies? Doctor's name & number? Insurance? Name of a neighbor with a key to your home?
